From Mrs. Plate' (Assistant Principal)

Parents, you are doing a great job!

This school year, unlike any other we have ever experienced, has called us to partner together in a way that is totally new and challenging at times. You have been more involved in your child's learning than ever, and for that we thank you and bless you!

As we continue through the school year, I want to offer this encouragement from Isaiah 40:11:

*He tends his flock like a shepherd:
He gathers the lambs in his arms
and carries them close to his heart;
he gently leads those that have young.*

Let this verse encourage you that God will gently lead you, shepherding you through this season of parenting. As the saying goes, "It takes a village to raise a child" - and we are so happy to be fellow villagers with you!
